

of one of their authors, and they would tell you where to place your extremely understanding piece.
Of course you will tell my publishers of your translation, and also of its possible publication abroad.

It was most kind of you to send me the photograph of the actors who read "The Prophet" at Freedom Hill. I know in my heart that each and every one of you visited, for an hour the dear city of our deeper desires, the distant city of Orphalese.

I am delighted to know that you are coming to settle in New York; and I shall be most happy to know you personally.

With kindest regards believe me, —

Faithfully yours
Kahlil Gibran

P.S. Mr. Campbell of Alfred A. Knopf may be the most informative.
Write to him if you care to do so